The WaterUps® Cell

When planning your new garden think about the benefits of using WaterUps® and incorporate wicking systems into your design

Win one of three WaterUps® self-watering wicking cell packs!

WaterUps® From DownUnder is an Australian designed and manufactured product that can be used in a variety of landscape and garden growing environments to deliver an extremely effective, practical and sustainable plant watering system – it's ideally suited to a range of urban and community garden growing environments.

Community gardens offer many benefits, from providing a place for those who otherwise would not have the space or opportunity to grow food to helping city people reconnect with nature.

At WaterUps® we support Community Garden initiatives and in celebration of our first anniversary in commercial production and to support National Water Week we are pleased to announce our Community Garden Prize Giveaway.
